

Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990

Designation of Responsible Person and Internal Grievance Procedure for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit

I. Authority

Federal regulations implementing the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) requires public entities with 50 or more employees to designate a responsible employee and adopt grievance procedures providing for prompt and equitable resolution of complaints alleging noncompliance or complaints alleging any actions that would be prohibited under Title II of the ADA. (28 C.F.R. §35.107)

II. Intent and Purpose

It is the intent of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit to fully comply with the ADA and to assure equity, fairness, and full participation in the judicial system for persons with disabilities.

The purpose of this procedure is to establish a mechanism for resolving complaints without requiring the complainant to resort to federal complaint procedures. However, complainants would not be required to exhaust this grievance procedure before they could file a complaint at the federal level.

It is the intent of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit that complainants be consulted and advised, and that communications be maintained, at each step of the grievance process. It is further the intent of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit to engage alternative dispute resolution techniques whenever necessary, and at any point in the grievance process.

III. Definitions

- A. Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)—Public Law 101-336, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability.

V. Grievances

A complaint shall contain the following minimum information:

- A. Name, address, and telephone number of the complainant on whose behalf the complaint is being made.
- B. The court facility in which the violation is alleged to have occurred.

- C. A complete statement of the grievance and the facts upon which it is based.
- D. The desired remedy or solution requested.
- E. The names of any witnesses who can provide supportive or relative information.

VI. Procedure for Grievances Relating to the Eleventh Judicial Circuit

A. Filing

1. Complaints must be filed with the ADA coordinator no later than one hundred eighty (180) days from the date of the alleged discrimination.
2. The filing deadline may be extended upon a show of good cause.

B. Assessment and Determination of Team Members

1. The ADA coordinator will determine which function(s) of the court is at issue: facilities, programs, services, benefits, or activities.
2. The ADA coordinator will notify the chief judge and the court administrator of the complaint.
3. A team consisting of the ADA coordinator, the administrator(s), and a member of the Office of the General Counsel shall address the complaint. Individual(s) who are charged in the complaint with alleged discriminatory conduct shall not be a member of the team.

C. Fact Finding

1. The team, or a member of the team, will review the complaint with the complainant.
2. The team, or a member of the team, will interview witnesses who can provide supportive or relative information and complete the fact finding.

D. Test of Legal Sufficiency

1. The team member representing the Office of the General Counsel will determine the legal sufficiency of the complaint.

E. Action

1. If a complaint is legally deficient, the complaint shall immediately be brought to closure.
2. If a complaint is legally sufficient, the team will establish a course of action to resolve the complaint.
3. To the extent necessary, the court will make reasonable modifications to its programs, services, benefits, and activities to ensure future compliance with the ADA.
4. The court may invoke the course of action described in the regulations implementing the ADA (28 C.F.R. §35.164) when modifications would result in a fundamental alteration in the nature of a service, program, or activity or in undue financial and administrative burdens.

F. Closure, Notification, and Records Retention

1. The ADA coordinator shall communicate the results of the investigation and the chosen course of action to the complainant not later than thirty (30) working days from the date the complaint was filed.
2. A record of the grievance shall be maintained for three (3) years; the record shall be located with the Office of the General Counsel.
