

OVERTOWN TRANSIT VILLAGE SOUTH

LACTATION ROOM PROTOCOL

The Lactation Room in the Overtown Transit Village South (OTVS) provides a place that is shielded from view and free from intrusion from coworkers and the public, which may be used for breast feeding and to express breast milk.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this protocol is to support attorneys, jurors, court users and employees at OTVS to continue to breastfeed and pump while at this facility. The Lactation Room offers a dedicated, comfortable, quiet space for users.

PROCEDURE

Location:

The Lactation Room is located in Room 1-116, next to the public restrooms on the 1st floor of the Overtown Transit Village South, 601 NW 1st CT, Miami, Florida 33136.

Security:

The Lactation Room is equipped with a lockable door and is only accessible to authorized users. Authorized users are subject to the “Rules for Lactation Room Usage” a copy of which is posted in the Lactation Room in Room 1-116.

The door to the lactation room is equipped with an access card reader that is controlled by the Building Manager’s Security Office.

The Lactation Room is available between the hours of 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday. There will be no janitorial services during hours of operation unless there is an emergency request for service. This prevents interruptions while in use.

Availability & Access:

The Lactation Room is available for use by 1) attorneys, jurors, and court users at OTVS; and 2) employees at Overtown Transit Village.

The Lactation Room will be made available to users during business hours, Monday – Friday from 8:00 am until 5:00 pm.

Users may access the room by requesting staff call the Building Manager’s office directly. A representative from the Building Manager’s Office will meet the user in Room 1-116 to grant access. Users may also request access in person at the security desk in the Courthouse Main Lobby.

Removing access:

Failure to follow the “Rules for Lactation Room Usage” may result in loss of future access to the room.
